Supplementary Notes

The Headmaster is responsible for placing boys/girls in Houses, but every effort is made to maintain family or other personal links. Both boys and girls can apply for boarding or day places.

1. Entry of Pupils at Sixth Form Level

These notes should be read in conjunction with notes on “Entry to the Sixth Form” in the Current Information booklet, which is issued by the School each year and which is incorporated in the prospectus. This gives detailed information about the timings and entry procedures for admission to Cranleigh. This Registration Form should be returned to the Headmaster by the time specified in the booklet.

2. Academic, Music and Eric Abbott Awards are made following the results of interviews and auditions held at Cranleigh. In the case of Academic Scholarship candidates, predicted GCSE grades are an essential guide for the interviewers. A report on all candidates will therefore be sought from the Head of the candidate’s present school.

3. The proposed three or four courses considered for study at AS and A Level are:
