OXBRIDGE

Cranleigh is pleased to sustain its record of success at Oxbridge entrance level, despite the increasingly competitive nature of applying to these two universities.

CAMBRIDGE:

From the cohort of 2015 Clare Marsh was successful with a post-A Level application to read for a degree in Geography at Churchill College, Cambridge. Joining her at Cambridge will be two girls who took A levels in June 2016, Olivia Chesser and Ellie McAleese-Park, who will both be studying Natural Sciences (at Corpus Christi, and at Christ's College respectively).

OXFORD:

From this same year group it is good to report a successful application to read Politics, Philosophy and Economics by Alasdair Johnston at St Anne's, Oxford. We wish them all well in their further studies.
